ICPM Seminar Series -
Raymond James Streamline and Strategic Partner HighView Financial Host Key Governance and Risk Management Seminar

Toronto, Ontario – Tuesday, March 25, 2008 – Raymond James Streamline, which provides custody and business solutions to private client wealth management firms, and HighView Financial are hosting a special seminar on Key Governance and Risk Management Issues for Investment Counsel and Portfolio Managers on Thursday, March 27th, 2008 at 4pm at the Toronto Board of Trade.

The seminar, which is part of an ongoing series of seminars hosted by Raymond James Streamline and HighView Financial, will address key governance and risk management issues faced by wealth management firms as well as offering risk management strategies to succeed in a highly competitive marketplace.

“The Canadian Wealth Management industry has experienced tremendous growth over the past several years and is projected to expand at an accelerated pace over the next decade due to demographic changes,” says James Phair, Vice President, Raymond James Streamline. “Our seminar series is designed to offer valuable information to ICPMs so they have the tools to take advantage of the growth opportunities that are available.”

The Raymond James Streamline Seminar Series is scheduled to stage events in major city centres across Canada over the coming year. Topics will focus on timely matters specific to ICPM firms such as governance, asset management and regulatory change.

“Our goal is to offer value-added information to ICPMs in an informal seminar setting so they can offer the best service possible to their own clients.” says Gary Brent, Chairman of HighView Financial Group Inc.
